

Honey of an idea

INDIA
ELCA.org/hunger

What “crop” doesn’t need any extra land for production? And, its raw materials provided generously for free by mother nature? For farmers in rural India, it is honey. Like most farmers, Sonamuni Tudu of West Bengal, India, relies on the land to produce crops to support his family. Changes in weather patterns have created challenges in food production. One alternative for him is to migrate or work at stone quarries, but both of these options carry risks, including human trafficking. Thanks to your gifts to ELCA World Hunger, through the Lutheran World Service India Trust, the Santhal tribal people, like Sonamuni, now have a safer and a more sustainable option – beekeeping. In this part of India, the raw materials for honey are readily available and beehives require neither additional land nor compete with agriculture. For Sonamuni and other rural and tribal farmers, beekeeping has become an additional source of income, as they produce high-quality honey that is in demand in markets around the region. “Beekeeping has come to us as an alternative source of income,” says Sonamuni. “The extra money we earn from honey production has increased our family income, which we use to invest in our children’s education, cover health care costs, and improve our living situation. We feel that we are earning money with dignity in an eco-friendly environment.” Thank you for supporting ELCA World Hunger. Through your gifts, the rural and tribal farmers in West Bengal, India, now have a tailored solution that can help put an end to hunger – for good.

“Giving In Generosity”

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

P: The Holy Spirit calls us together as the people of God.

C: Amen

P: God of all mercy and consolation, come to the help of your people, turning us from our sin to live for you alone. Give us the power of your Holy Spirit that we may confess our sin, receive your forgiveness, and grow into the fullness of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

C: Amen

P: Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another. Most merciful God,

C: we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

P: In the mercy of almighty God, Jesus Christ was given to die for us, and for his sake God forgives us all our sins. As a called and ordained minister of the church of Christ, and by his authority, I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

First, We Give of Ourselves Giving in Generosity

What does it mean to give in generosity? The story in John 12: 1-8 of Mary anointing the feet of Jesus with a very costly perfume, provides a picture of giving in generosity. What mover her to do such a thing? Why such extravagant generosity? Mary has just experienced Jesus raising her brother Lazarus from the dead. Could her generosity be that which flows from an extraordinary thankful heart?

Giving in generosity is just that! It is from a heart filled with delight and thanksgiving for God's abundant grace in Jesus Christ. It is a giving that is done freely and without condition. It is a giving with no expectation of something in return. It is simply a giving like Mary's, which is done in simple joy and abundant grace.

How have you experienced "giving in generosity" this past wee either by giving or receiving?

You will receive your pledge card, along with a time and talent sheet, in the mail this week. Please consider prayerfully how you will offer yourself to Faith Lutheran Church during 2017, and bring your commitment card and paper to worship with you next Sunday, Nov. 20, where we will offer them at the altar.

May God bless your generosity!

INTRODUCTION

P: The end is near. There is no doubt about it. The warnings are dire. The tone of today's texts is ominous. But the baptized know how to live in the "meantimes." The baptized are strengthened for the living of these days in word and sacrament. The baptized rally around the invitation of the apostle: "Brothers and sisters, do not be weary in doing what is right."

C: Amen

PRAYER OF THE DAY

P: Let us pray. (A brief silence.)

ALL: O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without you nothing is strong, nothing is holy. Embrace us with your mercy, that with you as our ruler and guide, we may live through what is temporary without losing what is eternal, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING FIRST READING: Malachi 4:1-2a

A reading from Malachi, the 4th chapter.

See, the day is coming, burning like an oven, when all the arrogant and all evildoers will be stubble; the day that comes shall burn them up, says the LORD of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. But for you who revere my name the sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its wings.

PSALM 98 ~ A Responsive Reading ~

- R: Sing a new song to the LORD, who has done marvelous things, whose right hand and holy arm have won the victory.
- C: O LORD, you have made known your victory, you have revealed your righteousness in the sight of the nations.
- R: You remember your steadfast love and faithfulness to the house of Israel; all the ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God.
- C: Shout with joy to the LORD, all you lands; lift up your voice, rejoice, and sing.
- R: Sing to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and the voice of song.
- C: With trumpets and the sound of the horn shout with joy before the king, the LORD.
- R: Let the sea roar, and all that fills it, the world and those who dwell therein.
- C: Let the rivers clap their hands, and let the hills ring out with joy before the LORD, who comes to judge the earth.
- R: The LORD will judge the world with righteousness and the peoples with equity.

SECOND READING 2 Thessalonians 3:6-13

A reading from 2 Thessalonians.

Now we command you, beloved, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from believers who are living in idleness and not according to the tradition that they received from us. For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us; we were not idle when we were with you, and we did not eat anyone's bread without paying for it; but with toil and labor we worked night and day, so that we might not burden any of you. This was not because we do not have that right, but in order to give you an example to imitate. For even when we were with you, we gave you this command: Anyone unwilling to work should not eat. For we hear that some of you are living in idleness, mere busybodies, not doing any work. Now such persons we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living. Brothers and sisters, do not be weary in doing what is right.

GOSPEL: Luke 21: 5-19

P: The holy gospel according to Luke, the 21st chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, Jesus said, "As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down." They asked him, "Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?" And he said, "Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say, 'I am he!' and, 'The time is near!' Do not go after them. "When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately." Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and plagues; and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven. "But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. This will give you an opportunity to testify. So make up your minds not to prepare your defense in advance; for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your souls."

P: The gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.
