CHILDREN'S CHURCH

FIRST READING: Acts 17:22-31

The first reading is from Acts, the 17th chapter.

Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, "Athenians, I see that you are extremely religious in every way. For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, 'To an unknown god.' Therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands; he is not served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things. As in the past, so now, our ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him - though indeed he is not far from each one of us. For 'In him we live and move and have our being,' as even some of your own poets have said, 'For we too are his offspring.' Since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by human imagination of mortals. While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged by a man whom he has appointed, and he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead."

GOSPEL: John 14:15-21

P: The holy gospel according to John, the 14th chapter
C: Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to the disciples: “If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you and will be in you. “I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me, and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love and reveal myself to them.”

Youth Confirmation Creed

We believe in God the Father, who is the Creator of heaven and earth. God loved his creation and said it was good. God has given us life and things to support our life, like food, clothing, and animals. God is still creating through people, every day. There is new life and more technology. God provides for us all that we need for daily life.

We believe in Jesus Christ, who is the Savior of the world. He healed many people because he cared about them. He told many stories and parables to his followers to increase their understanding of the Kingdom of God. He died on the cross to save us from our sins and to give us eternal life. He rose from the dead, and after he rose he commanded us to go to all the disciples all over the world. Because he loves us, he promises to be with us and to give us eternal life. He promises to be with us until the end of the age.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, who is the giver of our life. The Holy Spirit gives us spiritual gifts like love, joy, and kindness. The Holy Spirit helps us overcome our sins and helps us to live holy lives. The Holy Spirit calls people to become part of the Christian Church, and the Holy Spirit helps the church to grow around the world. He calls us to seek peace with all people, and helps us live in peace with our neighbors. This is most certainly true. AMEN!

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

P: Rejoicing in the risen life of Christ, let us pray for the needs of the world, and all who are in need. (A brief silence.) Lord, in your mercy, draw us together as one church. Draw your whole church together as one church. Draw an end to division. Send your Spirit into your people and help us to greater love and mission. Lord, in your mercy,

C: hear our prayer.

P: For the earth. For scientists, photographers, and explorers. For scholars, poets, musicians, artists, and all who lead lives of knowledge and appreciation of beauty. For lakes and rivers, watersheds and wetlands, ponds and oceans. Lord, in your mercy,

C: hear our prayer.

P: For the nations. Give wisdom to those who govern. Give wisdom to all who work for peace. Protect those who have been persecuted or have left their homes in search of safety and freedom. Lord, in your mercy,

C: hear our prayer.
