ANNOUNCEMENTS

OPENING HYMN "Come, You Thankful People, Come"

Come, ye thankful people, come;
raise the song of harvest home.
All be safely gathered in ere the winter storms begin.
God, our maker, doth provide for our wants to be supplied.
Come to God's own temple, come,
raise the song of harvest home.

All the world is God's own field,
fruit unto his praise to yield;
wheat and tares together sown,
unto joy or sorrow grown.
First the blade, and then the ear,
then the full corn shall appear.
Lord of harvest, grant that we wholesome grain and pure may be.

DIALOGUE MESSAGE and REFLECTION

Hymn of the Day "Praise and Thanksgiving"

Praise and thanksgiving, God, we would offer
for all things living, you have made good:
harvest of sown fields, fruits of the orchard,
hay from the mown fields, blossom and wood.

Then will your blessing reach ev'ry people,
freely confessing your gracious hand.
Where you are reigning, no one will hunger;
your love sustaining showers the land.

RESPONSIVE PRAYER

P: God of peace and plenty.

C: with awe and wonder we thank you for the beauty and abundance of our land and its people.

P: Our ancestors came from many lands, for many years

C: but by your mercy they found grace in the wilderness.

P: Your grace has supplied our daily bread without fail.

C: as well as the wit and will to use them. Thank you.

P: By your sheer grace we can indulge ourselves in love,
steep ourselves in learning, renew ourselves in leisure,
rest in safety.

C: Thank you, Lord.

P: You have freely blessed us with more than we could

C: You have sustained us in bounty we do not deserve.

P: Help us respond to your infinite grace through generosity
those in need,

C: understanding for those in dismay, courtesy toward
who oppose us, forgiveness for those who wrong us, compassion toward all who need us.

P: As we gather with family and friends,

C: help us speak freely and naturally of your gracious gifts that our holiday table may abound with thanks and with food.

P: Through this time of thanksgiving and rest,

C: lead us to continue in thankful living and giving,
of him who gave himself for us, Jesus Christ our Lord.
