INTRODUCTION

P: The welcome of baptism is for all God's children. This baptismal gift sets us free from the power of sin and death. In today's gospel, Christ promises that the disciple who gives a cup of cold water to the little ones serves Christ himself. From worship we are sent on our baptismal mission: to serve the little ones of this world and to be a sign of God's merciful welcome.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

P: Let us pray. (A brief silence.)

C: O God, you direct our lives by your grace, and your words of justice and mercy reshape the world. Mold us into a people who welcome your word and serve one another, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

CHILDREN'S CHURCH

The logo features the words "CHILDREN'S" and "CHURCH" in a large, blue, dashed-outlined font. The letter "C" in "CHURCH" is significantly larger than the other letters. Five diverse cartoon children's faces are integrated into the text: a boy with a crown is positioned between the "C" and the "H"; a girl with orange hair is between the "H" and the "U"; a girl with brown hair and a red headband is between the "U" and the "R"; a boy with black hair is between the "R" and the "C"; and a boy with brown hair is between the "C" and the "H". The entire logo is centered on a white background and enclosed within a green double-line border.

FIRST READING: Jeremiah 28:5-9

A reading from Jeremiah, the 28th chapter.

The prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the LORD; and the prophet Jeremiah said, “Amen! May the LORD do so;

may the LORD fulfill the words that you have prophesied, and bring back to this place from Babylon the vessels of the house of the LORD, and all the exiles. But listen now to this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people.

The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, famine, and pestilence against many countries and great kingdoms. As for the prophet who prophesies peace, when the word of that prophet comes true, then it will be known that the LORD has truly sent the prophet.”

R: Word of God, word of life.

C: Thanks be to God.

A Responsive Reading From Psalm 89

R: Your love, O LORD, forever will I sing;
from age to age my mouth will proclaim
your faithfulness.

C: For I am persuaded that your steadfast love is established forever; you have set your faithfulness firmly in the heavens.

R: “I have made a covenant with my chosen one; I have sworn an oath to David my servant:

C: ‘I will establish your line forever, and preserve your throne for all generations.’ ”

R: Happy are the people who know the festal shout! They walk, O LORD, in the light of your presence.

C: They rejoice daily in your name; they are jubilant in your righteousness.

R: For you are the glory of their strength, and
by your favor our might is exalted.

C: Truly, our shield belongs to the LORD; our king to the Holy One of Israel. Amen.

SECOND READING: Romans 6:12-23

A reading from Romans, the 6th chapter.

Do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness.

But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted, and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations.

For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness?

For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness.

So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

R: Word of God, word of life.

C: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL: Matthew 10:40-42

P: The holy gospel according to Matthew,
the 10th chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to the twelve: “Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward;

and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple - truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.”

P: The gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

SERMON

“The Prophets Still Speak”

Hymn of the Day “Oh Beautiful for Spacious Skies”

O beautiful for spacious skies,
for amber waves of grain,
for purple mountain majesties
above the fruited plain:
America! America!
God shed his grace on thee,
and crown thy good with brotherhood
from sea to shining sea.

O beautiful for heroes proved
in liberating strife,
who more than self their country loved,
and mercy more than life:
America! America!
May God thy gold refine,
till all success be nobleness,
and ev'ry gain divine.

O beautiful for patriot dream
that sees beyond the years
thine alabaster cities gleam,
undimmed by human tears:
America! America!
God mend thine ev'ry flaw,
confirm thy soul in self-control,
thy liberty in law.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.
